Surrender of MTNL phones by subscribers

2107. SHRI S.M. LALJAN BASHA: Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that a large number of MTNL landline phone subscribes have returned their phones to MTNL in the year 2004-05 and 2005-06;

(b) the number of such phones returned to MTNL in the last two years in Delhi and Mumbai respectively;

(c) the reasons for the poor service of MTNL;

(d) how does MTNL propose to improve its various services; and

(e) the steps taken in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (DR. SHAKEELAHMAD): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. The details of landline phones surrendered in MTNL in the year 2004-05 and 2005-06 are as under:

Year	Number of phones surrendered
	Delhi	Mumbai
2004-05	1,28,795	1,63,643
2005-06 (up to 31.01.06)	1,02.580	1,12,899

Some of the reasons for surrender of landline phones are as given below:

(i) There is general trend towards surrender of phones as options are now available with the customers to switch over from one operator to another operator.

(ii) Landline phone users are switching over to mobile phone as it is more convenient and provides roaming facility.

(iii) Closure of company/firm.

(iv) Surrender of additional phone due to economic reasons.

(v) Change of address etc.

(c) Sir, due to legacy copper network which is prone to various types of faults, some of the parameters of Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI) guidelines are not met by MTNL for landline telephones. However, they may not be termed as poor.

In GSM segment, quality of MTNL service are meeting the TRAI guidelines and is better than many other private operators in Mumbai and Delhi.

(d) and (e) MTNL is continuously taking measures to improve the services by modernizing the network to reduce faults, providing innovative services in line with the emerging trends, reviewing the tariffs to suit all segments of society, improvement of the customer relations etc. The steps taken by MTNL to improve telecom services are given in the enclosed Statement.
